The Volition

Volition -

The self

The modeler enters the system as a first latent variable. The model's purpose and any later design decision are a consequence of this. Volition shapes everything downstream but remains formally absent.

psychology, emotion, thought, intellect, will, purpose, boundaries of self

- ▲ Gives direction, meaning, and purpose beyond a good fit.
- ▼ Becomes invisible to itself; intent hardens into unquestioned path.
- ▶ The target card acquires a will of its own. Treat it as adversarial.

"Why does this model exist , and why does that matter to me?"

The volition coalesces from the aether without knowing it did. The self has entered the system. From here on out, nothing is neutral.
