Irreversible choices

The closing of possibility and the commitment to certain choices even under uncertainty. Every choice excludes its alternatives; some can never be reinstituted. History is a narrow trajectory inside what could have happened.

decision, irreversibility, resources, cost, real-world constraints, exclusion, lock-in, ownership

- ▲ Collapses possibility to certainty and enables commitment.
- ▼ Conceals excluded aspects and silenced stakeholders.
- ▶ Argue for necessity of target card. If you cannot, replace it.

"But why? (Apply to most/least obvious or critical aspect of the model twice) "

Other choices were possible. Not any longer. If this fails, you will not undo it.
